DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 7-8, 11, 14 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kiguchi et al. (US 6,887,631).

Regarding claim 1, Kiguchi et al. disclose a wiring board comprising:

- a substrate (302);
- a bank (412) which is disposed above the substrate to provide a plurality of regions (figure 9);
- a conductive layer (411) and first and second interconnecting lines (445 and 446) formed between the substrate and the bank; wherein:
- the bank has a top surface and a pair of side surfaces provided on both sides of the top surface (figure 9); and
- the side surfaces slopes symmetrically with respect to the substrate (figure 9).

Regarding claim 7, Kiguchi et al. disclose the conductive layer is one of electrodes of a capacitor (column 14, lines 12-15).

Regarding claim 8, Kiguchi et al. disclose the first and second interconnecting lines are respectively a signal line and a power supply line (column 14, lines 14-17).

Regarding claim 11, Kiguchi et al. disclose an electro-optical device comprising the wiring board and a functional layer disposed in each of the regions provided by the bank (figure 9).

Regarding claim 14, Kiguchi et al. disclose an electronic instrument comprising the electrode-optical device (figure 9).

Regarding claim 17, the method steps are necessitated by the device structure as it disclosed by Kiguchi et al. (figure 9) comprising:

- forming the wiring board (301)
- forming a functional layer (410) by disposing a liquid material including a functional layer material in each of the regions provided by the bank (412).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 2-6, 9-10, 12-13, 15-16 and 18-19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

With respect to claims 2-6, 10, 12-13, 15-16 and 18-19, the prior art alone or in combination does not teach the limitations of a wiring board comprising: the first interconnecting line is formed in a position closer to the substrate than the second interconnecting line, and the vertical centerline of the first interconnecting line is not coincide with the vertical centerline of the second interconnecting line, and the conductive layer is formed in a position closer to the substrate than the second interconnecting line, and the vertical centerline of the conductive layer is not coincide with the vertical centerline of the second interconnecting line.

With respect to claim 9, the prior art alone or in combination does not teach the limitation of the first interconnecting line constitutes a part of a first device circuit, and the conductive layer and the second interconnecting line constitute a part of a second drive circuit.

Citation Relevant of Prior Art

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
 - a. Yamazaki et al. (US 6,787,807) disclose semiconductor device.
 - b. Hosomi (US 6,740,981) discloses semiconductor device including memory unit and semiconductor module.
 - c. Yamagata et al. (US 6,720,198) disclose light emitting device and manufacturing method thereof.
